

Annex 2 to the Announcement International mobility a.y.2024/2025

Students who fulfil one of the following conditions at the time of applying for the call are exempted from having a language certificate. The relevant condition must be indicated by the student in the language section of the application:

1. They are native speakers. These students must, however, be in possession, at the time of the call for applications, of appropriate certification for any other languages declared in the application if they are not their mother tongue or Italian.

2. They are enrolled in one of the study courses taught entirely in English <https://www.unifi.it/index.php?module=CMpro&func=viewpage&pageid=10297&newlang=eng> and indicate English as their known foreign language. For the purposes of the ranking score, these students must, however, be in possession, at the time of the call for applications, of adequate certification for any other languages declared in the application in addition to English, or if they declare a higher level of English proficiency than that required by their course of study.

3. Have obtained a certificate attesting to having passed a knowledge test at CLA that explicitly refers to CEFR (Common European Framework of Reference for Languages) levels.

4. They have taken and passed the curricular linguistic aptitude test (at the CLA) or the curricular examination envisaged by their degree course (or the three-year degree course in the case of students enrolled in the master's degree programme). Curricular tests taken at the CLA are considered regardless of the composition of the test determined by agreement with the degree course.

For the purposes of the ranking score, these students must, however, be in possession, at the time of the call for applications, of adequate certification for any other languages declared in the application in addition to English, or if they declare a higher level of English proficiency than that required by their course of study.

5. They are enrolled in courses of the degree group L-11, LM-37, LM-36 and indicate in the Announcement the level of language knowledge corresponding to the last language exam passed within the course of study.

For the purposes of the ranking score, these students must, however, be in possession, at the time of the call for applications, of adequate certification for any other languages declared in the application in addition to English, or if they declare a higher level of English proficiency than that required by their course of study.

Using the drop-down menu in the languages section of the TURUL application, the candidate must list all the languages for which he/she requests a score for the purposes of the ranking list, whether they are certifications issued by external bodies (see Annex 1 to the Announcement) or knowledge related to the cases of exemption from certification listed above. A score will be awarded ONLY for the languages that the applicant declares when completing the application.
